ABOUT THE UNIVERSITIES OF LOUISIANA INAUGURAL CONFERENCE

The Universities of Louisiana Second Annual Conference is a professional development geared for the Faculty, Staff and Administrative leaders within the University of Louisiana System. The selected programming aims to reinvigorate attendees working toward achieving the six aspirations set forth in the Universities of Louisiana Strategic Framework. We anticipate that over 450 higher education leaders will travel from all over Louisiana to participate in the conference.

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY OF LOUISIANA SYSTEM

The University of Louisiana System, one of the nation's largest high education systems, is a family of nine distinctive educational institutions serving more than 90,000 students and awarding more than 16,500 degrees annually. The System offers a broad spectrum of educational opportunities ranging from technical training at the associate level to research at the doctoral level. It encompasses nine diverse higher education institutions: Grambling State University, Louisiana Tech University, McNeese State University, Nicholls State University, Northwestern State University, Southeastern Louisiana University, University of Louisiana at Lafayette, University of Louisiana at Monroe, and University of New Orleans.
